Introducing

Set in the heart of the Derbyshire countryside Oak Tree Meadow at The Boars Head provides scope to create something truly amazing and our team really understand that you want your big day to be something a little different and make memories to last a lifetime!

As well as bringing our years of expertise to the table we are working closely with Sami Tipi's and other suppliers to help achieve your fairytale day

Our 2.5 acre exclusive field complete with ample parking and on-site hotel accommodation is the perfect starting point to build your big day

Make the first step towards your special day and book an initial consultation where you get to meet our wedding perfectionist, Gabrielle. A tour of the premises and a discussion of your key details such as guest numbers, 'must haves' and other important details. If you have a specific date in mind, it is important to check availability with Sami Tipi's first!
